NEWS FROM COVERED CALIFORNIA

April 12, 2019

Director's Corner

Dear Partners,

As “Tax Day” approaches on April 15th, I’d like to recognize the hard work you do to guide consumers through health insurance decision points, many of which carry complicated financial considerations. Whether it’s explaining the difference between copays and coinsurance, helping consumers access their 1095 forms, or providing information to help in plan selection, your guidance and expertise benefit Californians every day of the year.

From speaking with our partners and consumers, we know that every consumer case is different and each comes with unique challenges. We value the relationship we have with you—and the thousands of certified enrollers statewide—who make the effort to cut through the complexity and help consumers get covered. We are working on improving the resources we provide to you, so be on the lookout for updates to our tool kits, including new maps showing enrollment trends. Also, watch for training on new system developments likely to be released next month.

Thank you for your continued work this Special Enrollment Period season! We appreciate your partnership each and every day.

IRS Form 1095-A

Tax Deadline April 15

Monday, April 15 is the deadline to file 2018 taxes. Consumers may be rushing to access their IRS Form 1095-A. The ONLY way to access their Form 1095-A before the deadline is by downloading it from their Covered California online account. There will not be enough time for Covered California to mail their form unless a consumer has filed for an extension with the IRS.

Review this short instructional video to assist with accessing a consumer's Form 1095-A online. Form 1095-A will be listed as "CaINOD62A_IRSForm1095A_2018" in their "Documents and Correspondence" section.

Please Note: Consumers who enrolled in a Catastrophic plan in 2018 will not receive a Form 1095-A from Covered California, but may have received Form 1095-B from their health insurance company. Remind consumers to keep this form for their records, but it is not required to file their taxes.

Important Reminders

Contact the Carrier When Updating your Covered California Agreement

Reminder: When making any changes to your Agent Agreement with Covered California or profile in the CalHEERS system, it is the Agent's sole responsibility to contact all Covered California carriers. This ensures the carrier appointment reflects the most up-to-date information for commission purposes. Changes include, but are not limited to, address, Tax ID, company name, and contact information.

Consent, Income, and Tax Attestation Notice

Beginning April 12, 2019, Covered California will send a notice to consumers who are at risk of losing their Advanced Premium Tax Credit (APTC) and/or cost-sharing reductions (CSR) for their 2019 health insurance coverage.

Review the Consent, Income, and Tax Attestation Quick Guide for direction on how you can help consumers.

Important: Because of laws around identifying consumers who may/may not be tax filers, Covered California staff will NOT know which consumers were sent a notice. Covered California is unable to advise our Certified Enrollers of which, if any, of their consumers were sent a notice and are at risk.

Resources
